

FORMX

MULTI-PURPOSE HARNESS / 140KG RATED

HFP0179

The Form X Harness is the latest harness to join the ZERO family. An extremely comfortable and versatile harness that is designed to form to your body, removing any pressure points for all-day use on site.

Donning the Form X is simple thanks to its unique single piece vest design and is equipped with shoulder and leg padding, breathable vest and automatic buckles. The Form X is equipped with rescue loops for emergency situations, fall indicators and tool loops for quick access.
